Antas ng pang- uri worksheet grade 6 answers pdf printable free

Paghahambing na patulad In paghahambing na patulad, the two objects (or persons) being compared possess the property in the same degree. Paghahambing na di-patulad In paghahambing na di-patulad, one of the objects or persons being compared possesses more or less of the quality or property. For some adjectives, if the noun is plural, the first syllable of the root word is repeated (magaganda, maliliit, mahahaba, etc.). The two 15-item worksheets below ask the student to write the correct form (correct degree of comparison) of the given adjective in order to complete the sentence. The two 20-item worksheets (with answer keys) below ask the student to underline the adjective in each sentence and to draw an arrow from the adjective to the noun or pronoun it describes. You may download, print, and photocopy them for your children or students. Please do not distribute them for profit. PAHAMBING (Comparative degree) The Filipino adjectives that are pahambing indicate that the noun or pronoun possesses the characteristic or property in a greater degree than another noun or pronoun. The three worksheets posted below practice the student's skill in identifying the degree of comparison of a Filipino adjective (kaantasan ng pang-uri). The five free pdf worksheets below are about Filipino adjectives (mga pang-uri). You may download, print, and photocopy them for your children or students. The two 15-item worksheets below ask the student to identify the degree of comparison of the underlined adjective in a sentence. The three degrees of comparison of Filipino adjectives are lantay (positive degree), pahambing (comparative degree), and pasukdol (superlative degree). The degree of comparison pahambing is classified into two types: paghahambing na patulad and paghahambing na di-patulad. One is better or worse than the other. In paghahambing na patulad, the following prefixes (unlapi) are used: magka- magsing- / magsin- (for root words that begin with d, l, r, s, or t) / magsim- (for root words that begin with b or p) magkasing- / magkasin- (for root words that begin with d, l, r, s, or t) / magkasim- (for root words that begin with b or p) kasing- / kasin- (for root words that begin with d, l, r, s, or t) / kasim- (for root words that begin with b or p) sing- / sin- (for root words that begin with d, l, r, s, or t) / sim- (for root words that begin with b or p) ga- : This unlapi is used to indicate that an object has the same size as the word attached to the prefix ga-. Examples are gabutil (as small as a grain or kernel) and gabundok (as big as a mountain). 1.
